

Jordan Harris

██████████@deloitte.com

Work Experience

Deloitte Consulting, Louisville KY

Client Relationship Executive (2022-Present)

- Build and manage client relationships across operations
- Develop and implement long term strategic plans specific to Kentucky consulting opportunities
- Serve as a liaison between client interests and consultant delivery teams

Office of Senator Mitch McConnell, Washington DC

Policy Advisor/Legislative Assistant (2021-2022)

- Directly advised Senator McConnell on optimal policy objectives and recommended course of action
- Worked with parties inside and outside of Senate to craft, promote, and defend Senator's interest
- Served as primary office contact with portfolio committees, attending hearings, advancing legislation,
- and maintaining relationships with key committee staff and offices
- Managed relationships with key constituencies in portfolio areas, including regular interaction with business groups, advocacy organizations, and government officials in Washington DC and Kentucky

Pegasus Institute, Louisville KY

Founder, Executive Director (2016-2019), Senior Fellow (2019-2021)

- Produced more than two dozen published reports and white papers — cited more than 250 times by state and national media, presented to legislative panels, and widely utilized by policymakers
- Authored Kentucky's largest state tax reform package in more than eight decades (HB487, 2018)
- Achieved more than 24 national, state, and local legislative changes as a direct result of research
- Built and lead a team of 14 employees — encompassing strategic direction, personnel hiring, disciplinary issues, quarterly reviews and other day to day management
- Responsible for all communications including media appearances and expert commentary for television, radio, and print publications as well as expert testimony for legislative committees
- Developed fundraising campaigns that grew to more than $1.5 million in donations

Education

Harvard University, Cambridge MA

Master's Degree: Government (2014-2016)

- Served as Research Assistant to Dr. Harvey Mansfield, assisting with research for his forthcoming book on the foundations of America's political parties

Penn State University, State College PA

Bachelor's Degree: History (2010-2014)

- Inducted into Lion's Paw Senior Honor Society, considered the highest honor for seniors at the university.
- Founding member of Upward State, which worked to identify and elect Trustees to the University Board of Trustees