JCPS students win Ken-Ducky Derby Art Contest

Two JCPS students won top honors in the 2014 Ken-Ducky Derby Art Contest, sponsored by Harbor House of Louisville, a nonprofit organization dedicated to empowering the lives of adults with disabilities.

Mirrielle Pungum, a junior at Plesasure Ridge Park (PRP) High, created a design that is featured on the official T-shirt for the 11th Annual Ken-Ducky Derby Festival (Sun, Sept. 28, at Louisville Waterfront Park). Mirrielle received a $100 savings bond courtesy of Republic Bank. Her graphic design teacher at PRP is Denise Webb.

Alexandria Brown, a Rangeland Elementary student last year and now a student at Newburg Middle, designed the winning poster and received a pizza party. Her art teacher at Rangeland was Christina Hudson.

The contest, which was open to students in public, private, and parochial schools, received more than 200 submissions. Winners were selected by a panel of three judges, which included professionals from the art world as well as corporate and civic leaders who support Harbor House.

2. On Sunday, September 28, the 11th annual Ken-Ducky Derby will take place in downtown Louisville on the wharf along the Ohio riverfront. This event is sure to delight everyone in your family: who wouldn't love watching thousands of ducks float down the Ohio River toward a finish line, and hoping that one of yours crosses first! Adopt a duck and help Harbor House continue their great work for the lives of people living with disabilities. 13,332 ducks have been adopted so far; their goal is to get 23,000 ducks adopted for the race. Adopt one duck for $5, or packages of ducks for $25-$100. The race is from 12pm-5pm; lots of family fun will start at 12pm, including live music, a food court, games and more. At 4pm, the ducks will be dropped into the Ohio River for the race; cheer your ducks on to victory!

2014 Poster Art and T-shirt Art Contest

For the first time, Harbor House of Louisville enlisted the help of our youth to design the posters and t-shirts for the 2014 Ken-Ducky Derby Festival. Postcards were sent to students in JCPS and the Archdiocese. Over 170 entries were received and a presentation and judging took place at Mike Linnig's in June.

Harbor House of Louisville 11th Annual Ken-Ducky Derby Festival Art Contest

Harbor House of Louisville is dedicated to empowering individuals with disabilities and their families to lead fulfilled and productive lives. Help us in our mission and make this year's Ken-Ducky Derby Festival, presented by Sam Swope, our best yet by putting your mark on it.

We are looking to the youth in our community to help create a one-of-a-kind work of art for the Festival's official poster. Submit your fun, innovative and original work and get a chance to win the grand prize, your design featured on our official 2014 poster and a private tour and pizza party for you and your closest friends at Papa John's Headquarters.
