

Carlos E. Sanchez
President
AT&T Kentucky

Carlos E. Sanchez was named President AT&T Kentucky in April 2022. Carlos has been with AT&T for 21 years. In his current role, he leads and executes the overall strategic direction of AT&T's corporate initiatives across the commonwealth, as well as the company's local and state government relations efforts. He works closely with community and business leaders, elected officials and others at AT&T to bring fiber and 5G wireless broadband services to consumers and businesses.

Carlos E. Sanchez lived in Charlotte for twenty years and formerly worked as AT&T's Government Affairs Director for AT&T North Carolina. Before joining AT&T, he was Regional Sales Director for Intermedia Communications, a competitive local exchange carrier. Prior to moving to Charlotte, Carlos was Executive Vice President of Kisa Internacional S.A., a telecommunications technology integrator in Bogotá, Colombia. He also lived in New York City where he operated a local cable television station. Before moving to New York, he worked with his family producing a weekly travel television program that aired on The Travel Channel and the Telemundo Network.

His civic involvement reflects the scope and commitment of AT&T to the community. Carlos serves on the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce and the Greater Louisville, Inc. boards of directors. Also, he completed the Leadership Kentucky Class of 2023.

Carlos E. Sanchez is fully bilingual in English and Spanish and has a B.A. in International Relations from Florida International University and MBA from the McColl School of Business in Queens University. He is a native of Bogotá, Colombia and is married to Diana S. Kielland. They live in Louisville, KY and have two adult children and a dog.
