

EDUCATION

2003 Ph.D. Applied Forensic Psychology. Carleton University, Ottawa, ON

Dissertation: An investigation of factors influencing treatment responsivity in incarcerated high-risk rapists. Supervisors: Ralph Serin, Ph.D. and Adelle Forth, Ph.D.

Comprehensive Exam A comprehensive community management strategy for mentally disordered offenders.

1998 M.A. Psychology, Carleton University, Ottawa, ON

Thesis: An information processing approach to understanding sympathy deficits in sexual offenders. Supervisor: Karl Hanson, Ph.D.

1996 B.A. (Honours) Psychology, Carleton University, Ottawa, ON

Thesis: The relationship between psychopathy and sexual offending.

1990 B.A. (Minor, Psychology), Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario

Licensure & Certifications

Kentucky State Examiners – General Psychology, License #129121 |

AWARDS & RECOGNITIONS

- 2017 Kentucky Psychological Association: Jack Runyon Community Service Award

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Subject Matter Expert- Completed thousands of hours in Forensic Mental Health Assessment/Treatment
- Subject Matter Expert- Psycho-Sexual Deviancy Evaluations
- Proven justice system leader, working with cutting-edge research/practice in institutional and community settings, assessing and treating diverse types of individuals, including substance abuse, sex offenders, and violent justice-involved individuals
- Selected by the mayor, governor, criminal justice boards, and commissions for providing knowledge and expertise, and skills as a Forensic Psychologist; Deep knowledge in broad evidence-based practice across civil and criminal, family and juvenile law
- Managed Forensic Research team for the last 16 years and completed research contracts for the United States Federal Parole, Restorative Justice Louisville, Louisville Youth Detention Center, and Spalding University
- Engaged in the research cited and relied upon by independent scientific researchers and higher education institutions from geographically diverse areas around the world, including NY, New Zealand, Canada, Norway, and Australia
- Presented at national and international interdisciplinary psychology and law conferences
-

SUMMARY OF FORENSIC CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

- Provide expert testimony in criminal, juvenile, and family court.
- Responsible for performing forensic mental health evaluations on sexual and non-sexual justice-involved cases at all levels of institutional security.
- Responsible for operating a community correctional treatment clinic, delivering individual and group culturally responsive treatment with justice-involved individuals.
- Responsible for supervision of psychological treatment for survivors of torture, at-risk youth in high school settings, individuals in mental health court, and community re-entry transitions.
- Responsible for completing mental health evaluations for U Visa applications
- Oversee training in the power of authority, implicit bias, and restorative communication for correctional/detention officers and local police recruits.
- Deliver workshops and training for judges. Lawyers, wardens about evidence-based practices in the justice system
- Provides consultation with agencies working with mentally disordered offenders, correctional departments, families of incarcerated individuals, police programs, and reporting centers.
- Chair of Correctional Psychiatric Hospital Ethics Committee

PUBLICATIONS

Television Appearances

- Guest on Local Television station WHAS

Radio Shows

- Campus Connection. (2011, February). Topic: Forensic Psychology. Spalding University Weekly Talk show.
- NPR. State of Affairs. (2010, April). Topic: Therapeutic Jurisprudence with David Wexler.
- NPR. State of Affairs. (2009, September). Subject: School Place Violence with Shelia Shuster and Nancy Gordon

Research Contracts

- United States Federal Parole. (2016). Using a Risk Profile to Make Treatment and Supervision Recommendations for a Federal Sample of Child Pornography Offenders.
- Restorative Justice Louisville. (2014). Evaluation of Restorative Justice Pilot Project in Louisville Juvenile Courts.
- Louisville Youth Detention Center. (2014). Evaluation of the Implementation of JARIS Risk Assessment Tool in Youth Detention Center.
- Spalding University Faculty Development Grant. J. (2011). The Problem of Sexual Assault on College Campuses.

Peer-Reviewed Journal Articles and Books

- Journal of Criminal Justice and Behavior, Sage Publishing.
- Journal of Assessment: Sage Publishing.
- Decoding the Ethics Code, by Celia B. Fisher, Sage Publishing.

Dissertations and Thesis

- Ph.D. Dissertation: An investigation of factors influencing treatment responsivity in incarcerated high-risk rapists. Chairs: Ralph Serin, Ph.D. and Adelle Forth, Ph.D.
- Comprehensive Exam: A comprehensive community management strategy for mentally disordered offenders.
- Master's Thesis: An information processing approach to understanding sympathy deficits in sexual offenders. Chair: Karl Hanson, Ph.D.
- Undergraduate Thesis: The relationship between psychopathy and sexual offending. Chair, Adelle Forth, Ph.D.

Editor of Book Series- Routledge Publishers

Book 1: Cultural Responsivity Issues: Sexual Aggression and Treatment

Book 2: Cultural Responsivity Issues: Sexual Aggression and Ethnicity

Book 3: Cultural Responsivity Issues: Sexual Aggression and Risk Assessment

Book 4: Cultural Responsivity Issues: Assessment and Treatment of Violent Justice-Involved Individuals

Book Chapters

- Dickie, I. & Leyderman, M. (2019). Restorative Policing. In Encyclopedia of Criminal Psychology. Edited by Robert Morgan, Sage Publishing.
- Dickie, I. & Tinsley, A. (2019). Segregation in Prison: Best Practices Restorative Policing. In Encyclopedia of Criminal Psychology Edited by Robert Morgan, Sage Publishing.
- Lederman, M., Raptis, L. & Dickie, I. (2019). Restorative Policing. In Encyclopedia of Criminal Psychology Edited by Robert Morgan, Sage Publishing.
- Dickie, I. & Maschi, T. (2017). Collaboration and Care Coordination in T. Maschi Forensic Social Work.

Articles

Dickie, I and Harrington, A (In press). Understanding Risk Assessment and Racial Bias.

- Leyderman, M., Collins, J. & Dickie, I. (2018). Respect and Tolerance: Restorative Correctional Officer Training in the 21st Century. American Jailer Association Journal.
- Dickie, I. (2012). Training Forensic Psychologists at the proficient level: A proposed PsyD curriculum. The IAFCP Newsletter.
- Duncan, S., & Dickie I. (2012). Family Group Conferencing: A Pilot Project within the Juvenile Justice Court System in Louisville, KY. The Prevention Researcher.
- Looman, J., Dickie, I., & Maillet, G. (2008). Sexual Arousal among rapist subtypes. Journal of Sexual Aggression, Volume, 14 (3), 267-279.
https://www.researchgate.net/publication/240236495_Sexual_arousal_among_rapist_subtypes/stats
- Dickie, I. (2008). Ethical Dilemmas, Forensic Psychology, and Therapeutic Jurisprudence. Thomas Jefferson Law Review, Vol 30 (2), 455-462.
- Dickie, I. (2008). Forensic Psychology and Therapeutic Jurisprudence. Proceedings of the North American Corrections and Criminal Justice Psychology Conference.
- Reynolds, B., Reinhardt, A. & Dickie, I. (2008). Training Needs for Graduate Students in Forensic Psychology. Proceedings of the North American Corrections and Criminal Justice Psychology Conference.
- Looman, J., Dickie, I., & Abracen, J. (2005). Responsivity issues in the treatment of sexual offenders. Trauma, Violence, and Abuse, Vol 6 (4), 1-23.
- Dickie, I. & Ward, Leanne. (1997). Women offenders convicted of robbery and assault. Forum, 9(2), 29-33.
- Lavigne, B., Hoffman, L. & Dickie, I. (1997). Women who have committed homicide. Forum, 9(2), 25-29.

Abstracts

- Dickie, I., Fish, K., Selph, M., & Burke, C. (2017). Treatment of Anti-sociality. International Association of Law and Mental Health. Prague, Czech Republic.
- Dickie, I., Malcolm, B., & Forth, A. (1997). Correlates of the Psychopathy Checklist: Screening Version in Incarcerated Offenders. Canadian Psychology, 38(2a), 14.
 - Dickie, I. & Hanson, K. (1998). An information processing approach to understanding sympathy deficits in sexual offenders. Canadian Psychology, 39(2a), 103.
 - Dickie, I. (2007). Effective and Competent Forensic Psychologists: Reconciling Therapeutic and Forensic Roles with the Therapeutic Jurisprudence Model. International Congress on Law and Mental Health Proceedings June 25-30, Padua, Italy.

Posters

- Nash, B., Chapman, N., Kniffley, S., Wohlfarth, D., & Dickie, I. (2020). Innovative strategies for teaching and modeling social responsiveness in the classroom, service delivery, and community. Poster accepted for presentation at the National Council of Schools of Professional Psychology, Carlsbad, CA.
- Lederman, M., and Dickie, I. (2015, November). Effectiveness of Reasoning and Rehabilitation 2 (R&R2) in a Community Corrections Setting ABCT, Chicago, IL.
 - Dickie, I., O'Keefe, N., & Groff, B. (2015). The effects of mindfulness-based interventions on the management of attitudes and behaviors of incarcerated men. APA, Toronto, Ontario.
 - Dickie, I., Herman, L., Montgomery, A., Tapp, R., O'Keefe, N., & Groff, Becky. (2014, August). The Effects of Mindfulness-Based Interventions on Mental Health Problems in Incarcerated Men. APA, Toronto, On, Canada.
 - Sutton, C., Dickie, I., Wilson, H., Licata, S., & Leibowitz, Z. (2013, October). Understanding Motivation for Behavioral Change in the Offending Population. ABCT, Nashville, TN.
 - Johnson, R., Dickie, I., VanNort, J., & Groff, R. (2013, October). The Violence Risk Scale: Sex Offender Version- Construct and Predictive Validity Using a Kentucky Department of Corrections Sample. Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers. Chicago, IL.
 - Fish, K., & Dickie, I. (2013, October). Schema Therapy within a Community Corrections Population: An Exploration of Temperament, Neglect, Attachment, Schemas, and Risk. ABCT, Nashville, TN.
 - Dickie, I., McCrary, K. & Sutton, C. (2012, April). Self-Reported Offender Risk: Is it the Same as Clinician Rated? International Association of Forensic Mental Health Sciences.
 - Novotney, J., Dickie, I., Mauntel, G., & Wilson, H. (2012, March). Implementation of Motivational Interviewing in a Correctional Setting: Benefits of Change. Mental Health Community corrections Conference.
 - Dickie, I., Wilson H., & Ford, S. (2011). Client Perceptions of the Healthy Lifestyles Program: An interdisciplinary approach to re-entry with high-risk offenders. Mental Health Community Corrections Conference, Chicago, Illinois.
 - McCrary, K., Dickie, I., Fish, K., & Novotney, J. (2008). The Relationship Between Pornography, Sexual Behavior Practices, and Sexual Violence in College Students. Association for the Treatment of Sexual Offenders, Dallas, Texas.
 - Boughner, K., Dickie, I., & VanNort, J. (2008). Dimensions of the Static-99 and Static-2002: A five-factor analysis. Association for the Treatment of Sexual Offenders, Dallas, Texas.
 - Dickie, I. (2002, October). Replication of the MTC: R3 typology at RTC (O). Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers.
 - Dickie, I. (1997, June). The utility of the Psychopathy Checklist- Screening Version with Incarcerated Sexual Offenders. Canadian Psychological Association Conference.

FACILATATED WORKSHOPS / TRAINING SESSIONS | CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

Forensic Mental Health

- International Community Corrections Conference. (2016, October). A Framework for Trauma-informed Youth Justice. Toronto, Canada.
- Seven Counties Community Mental Health. (2016, September). LSI-R training for Mental Health Court.
- High, L., & Dickie, I. (2016). Using Offence Chains and Relapse Prevention Plans with Justice-Involved Veterans.
- Dickie, I. (2015). Compassion Fatigue, Secondary Traumatic Stress, Vicarious Trauma, and Burnout: No Matter how you say it, Family Law Cases are Hard on Us All. Family Law Conference, Frankfort, Kentucky.
- Dickie, I. (2013, October). Conceptualization Juvenile Delinquency. National Partnership and Juvenile Services. Louisville, KY.
- Dickie, I., Sutton, C., Serin, R., & Casey, S. (2014). Offender Motivation and Sustaining Wellbeing in Offender Populations. Applied Psychology. Paris, France.
- Association for Behavioral and Cognitive Therapies. (2012, November). Evidence-based assessment and treatment in correctional populations. Washington, DC.
- International Community Corrections Conference. (2012, September). From What Works to What Matters. Keynote Speaker: Edwin Megaree Award. Orlando, FL.
- Kentucky Crime and Delinquency Council. (2012, July). Healthy Lifestyles Program: Evidence-based practice in a community correctional facility. Lexington, KY.
- International Community Corrections Conference. (2012, September). Workshop: Evidence-Based practices that promote client and organizational change in criminal justice settings. Orlando, Florida.
- Mental Health and Corrections Conference. (2011, April). Workshop: Healthy Lifestyles: An interdisciplinary approach to re-entry with high-risk offenders. Chicago.
- International Association of Forensic Mental Health Services. (2011, June). Symposium: Risk, Need, Responsivity, and Good Lives Model: Compatible or incompatible approaches. Barcelona, Spain.
- Mental Health in Corrections Conference. (2011, April). Concurrent Workshop: Healthy Lifestyles: An Interdisciplinary Approach to Re-entry with High-Risk Offenders. Chicago, IL.
- Dismas Charities, Private Correctional Facility. (2011, June). Two-day Motivational Interviewing Training
- International Community Corrections Conference. (2010, October). Presentation: How are ethics and human rights applicable when working with offenders? Louisville, KY.
- International Congress of Law and Mental Health. (2009, June). Paper Presentation: The Risk Need Model of Offender Rehabilitation, New York City, NY.
- Dismas Charities, Private Correctional Facility. (2009, October). Two-day workshop: Motivational Interviewing
- Association of Behavioural and Cognitive Treatment. (2008, November). Symposium: The Importance of Using Cognitive Behavioral Treatment Approach within the Criminal Justice System. Orlando, FL.
- Kentucky Council on Crime and Delinquency (KCCD). (2008, September). Deconstructing Sexual Violence. Louisville, KY.
- Kentucky Sex Offender Assessment Training Board. (2008, May). The Good Live Model, RNR and Therapeutic Jurisprudence: Implications for Sexual Offender Assessment and Treatment., Louisville, KY.
- Department of Corrections Annual Training. (2007, October). The Importance of Risk Assessment in Correctional Work.

- Ending Sexual Assault & Domestic Violence Conference. (2007, December). Presentation: Circles of Support and Accountability: A novel approach to the management of high-Risk Sex Offenders. Lexington, KY.
- Kentucky Council on Crime and Delinquency (KCCD)/Southern States Correctional Association (SSCA) Conference. (2007, July). Presentation: Circles of Support and Accountability: A novel approach to the management of high-Risk Sex Offenders. Louisville, KY.
- International Congress of Law and Mental Health. (2007, June). Paper Presentation: Importance of Teaching Psychology Graduate Students the Therapeutic Jurisprudence Model. Padua, Italy.
- Sex Offender Treatment Training Board: Franklin, Tennessee. (2003, August).
- North American Correctional and Justice Conference. (2007, June). Symposium: Professional Issues in Practicing Forensic Psychology. Ottawa, Canada.
- Mental Health in Corrections Conference, Kansas City. (2007, April). Circles of Support and Accountability.
- Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (2005, November). Paper Presentation: An investigation of responsivity factors in a sample of high-risk rapists.
- Human Services: Justice Coordination Network Conference. Kingston, Ontario (2004, November). Comprehensive Community Management Strategy for Mentally Disordered Offenders.
- Ontario Regional Psychological Group. Kingston, Ontario. (2004, October). Responsivity Principle and Sexual Offender Treatment.
- Human Services: Justice Coordination Network Conference. Kingston, Ontario. (2004, November). A presentation about Comprehensive Community Management Strategy for Mentally Disordered Offenders.
- Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers. (1998, October). Symposium: Empathy deficits in sexual offenders.
- Canadian Psychological Association Conference. (1998, June). Student Symposium: Topic- An information processing approach to understanding sympathy deficits in sexual offenders.

Law Enforcement

- Louisville Metro Detention Center and Louisville Metro Police. (2016, October – 2018 October). Power of Authority, Implicit Bias, and Restorative Communication Training.
- Society for Police and Criminal Psychology. (2014, September). Mental Health Treatment of Police Officers: Keeping Officers Safe. Las Vegas, NV.
- 11th International Conference on Conflict Resolution Education. (2017, March). Can the Teaching and Training of Restorative Conflict Resolution Communication Techniques Impact Levels of Job Stress, Job Satisfaction, and Organizational Commitment at a Local Level of Law Enforcement? Columbus, OH.

Judges and Lawyers

- Centerstone Mental Health Agency. (2018, April). Risk Assessment Training for Mental Health Court. Louisville, KY.
- Judicial Center. (2018, September). Interdisciplinary Teams and Mental Health Courts, Louisville, KY.
- John Jay Criminal Justice Conference. (2008, June). The Law and Effective Forensic Clinical Practice. Puerto Rico.

Workplace Violence

- Family Time. (2019, February). Inclusivity and Diversity. Jeffersonville, Indiana.
- CEU Workshop. (2007, August). The Kentucky Psychological Association hosted a teleconference titled "School and Workplace Violence: Preparing for the Unthinkable" in 18 cities statewide. In Louisville, KY, The workshop was designed primarily for mental health, medical, and education professionals. Continuing education credits are available for physicians, nurses, psychologists, and other mental health professionals.

Restorative Justice

- Spalding University. (2017, October). Training Louisville Seminary in Circles of Support and Accountability.
- Spalding University. (2016, April). Talking Circles Training for African American Male Offenders Returning to the Community.
- Jefferson County Public Schools. (2018, March). Hosted Restorative Justice Show Case. Spalding University.
- Jefferson County Public Schools. (2018, March). School Resources Officers and Restorative Practices. Spalding University.
- Dickie, I., Lederman, M., Collins, J., & Beasley, R. (2018). 1-day workshop. Restorative Communication with School Resource Officers. Spalding University.
- Urban Education Conference. Restorative Justice in School Settings: Theory and Implementation (2018, November). Nassau Bahamas.
- Society for Police and Criminal Psychology. (2017, September). Restorative Policing, San Diego.
- Sixth Annual Dialogue on Diversity Conference. (2017, April). The Implementation of Restorative Communication in Educational and Correctional Settings. Louisville, KY.
- Spalding University. (2017, October). Training Louisville Seminary in Circles of Support and Accountability.
- Spalding University. (2016, April). Talking Circles Training for African American Male Offenders Returning to the Community.
- Dickie, I., & Mills, L. (2015). Using Restorative Justice Dialogues and Circles in Classroom Settings. Iroquois High school.
- Dickie, I. (2014). Restorative Justice and Compassion on College Campuses. Spalding University's Presidential Speaker Series.

Panel Presentations

Panel Facilitator of Re-entry with Offenders. Lyra Theater, University of Louisville.
Panel Discussant, Gun Violence, Nursing Department. The University of Louisville.
Panel Discussant, Work Place Violence. Agriculture Annual Trade Show.
Panel Discussant Restorative Justice, Louisville Women's Bar Association.

FORENSIC PSYCHOLOGICAL WORK EXPERIENCE

Founder of Not for Profit: Transformative Justice Healthy Lifestyles Program

- Department of Corrections, Luther Lockett Facility(2020)- Development of a treatment Milieu Unit for 18-25-year-olds. 160,000$
- Healthy Lifestyles Program (2022): 740,000$ contract to deliver mental health treatment to 18-24 year justice-involved individuals.

CEO: Transformative Justice Mental Health Clinic

Louisville, KY, USA

2022-Present

- Transformative Justice Mental Health Clinic \(tjmhc.net\)

Forensic Private Practice, Louisville,
KY, USA

2008 – Present

Role: Psychologist, Trainer, and Consultant

Street Health Addiction Center, Kingston,
ON, CA

2005 – 2007

Role: Psychologist and Consultant

Maximum Security Regional Psychiatric Treatment Center, Kingston,
CA
Correctional Service of Canada
Role: Psychologist

Medium Security Warkworth Correctional Institution, Kingston, CA 1999 – 2000
Correctional Service of Canada
Role: Psychologist

Maximum Security Millbrook Correctional Center, Millbrook, CA 1998 – 1999
Ontario Provincial Ministry of Corrections
Role: Psychometrist

Solicitor General of Canada, Corrections Directorate, Ottawa, CA 1997 – 1998
Role: Research Project Manager

Women Offender Sector, National Headquarters, Ottawa, CA 1996 – 1997
Correctional Service of Canada
Role: Project Officer

Sex Offender Program, Ottawa, CA 1996 – 1997
Correctional Service of Canada
Role: Project Officer

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

Spalding University, Louisville, KY

2006 – 2022

Director of Graduate Forensic Psychology Emphasis | Tenured Associate Professor

- Developed and implemented, and directed the FEA at Spalding University

Research: Grants and Contracts

- Louisville Presbyterian Seminary (2018). Training Clergy in Restorative Talking Circles. 20,000$
- United States Federal Parole (2016) Using a Risk Profile to make Treatment and Supervision Recommendations for a Federal Sample of Child Pornography Offenders. 50,000$
- Restorative Justice Louisville (2014). Evaluation of Restorative Justice Pilot Project in Louisville Juvenile Courts. 7000$
- Louisville Youth Detention Center, (2014). Evaluation of the Implementation of JARIS Risk Assessment Tool in Youth Detention Center. 15,000$
- Behavioral Science and Law Institute (BSLP) Contract – 68,000$
- Spalding University Faculty Development Grant. (2011). The Problem of Sexual Assault on College Campuses. 500$

• The Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA)-Justice and Mental Health Collaboration Program Grant).

(2009). Developed an interdisciplinary treatment program for men at high risk of re-offending called the Healthy Lifestyle Program. The Mentally Ill Offender Treatment and Crime Reduction Act of 2004 (MIOTCRA) authorized the program and promoted coordination among criminal justice, juvenile justice, mental health, and substance abuse agencies. 64,000$

Director of Restorative Justice Studies | Tenured Associate Professor 2015 – 2018

Key Accountabilities

- Conceptualized and implemented the undergraduate Restorative Justice Studies program curriculum
- Relied upon for providing consultation to city community agencies on how to use restorative practices and higher education institutions on how to create topic-based curriculum

Key Achievements

- Managed the research evaluation(RCT contract on the Evaluation of the Restorative Justice Pilot Project for the Juvenile Courts of Louisville, Inc.

Director of Behavioral Science and Law Institute (BSLP) | Tenured Associate Professor 2013 – 2015

Key Accountabilities

- Conceptualized an institute to provide national and international interdisciplinary behavioral scientists and legal systems stakeholders an opportunity to collaborate, synthesize, disseminate and implement multidisciplinary research/practice

Key Achievements

- Skillfully developed a curriculum for an interdisciplinary symposium on evidence-based practices in the Criminal Justice field

Clinic Director | Tenured Associate Professor 2009 – 2010

Key Accountabilities

- Handled all operations for an interdisciplinary forensic training clinic involving graduate psychology, occupational therapy, social work, and nursing students; when funded, managed an annual budget of $64K

Key Achievements

- Developed and implemented an interdisciplinary (OT, nursing, SW, and Psych) treatment program for high-risk justice-involved male offenders between 18 to 35 years of age

Loyalist College*, Belleville, Ontario, CA

1999 – 2021

Online Instructor

Key Responsibilities

- Responsible for teaching the Introduction to forensic psychology course, educating students on how the fields of psychology and law intersect, as well as the applications of that intersection for forensic psychology

VOLUNTEER LEADERSHIP

Past

Chair of Juvenile Justice Advisory Board (JJAB): Appointed by KY Governor

Editorial Board of the New Global Journal, Innovations in Justice and Well-Being

Global Advisory Board: International Society of Therapeutic Jurisprudence

PRISM: National task force examining how to use Restorative Practice with Sexual violence on a university campus

Sex Offender Risk Assessment Board: Appointed by KY Governor

State-Policy Representative- Association for Treatment of Sexual Abusers

Louisville Criminal Justice Commission – Appointed by Mayor

Chair and Co-Chair: Association for Cognitive and Behavioral Treatment – Criminal Justice Special Interest group.

Vice-Chair- New Legacy Re-entry Center

Chair- Kingston Sexual Assault Centre

Vice-Chair- Ottawa Rape Crisis Centre

Sex offender Re-entry Task Force, KY

Offender Re-entry Task Force, KY

State Sexual Violence Prevention Task Force, KY

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Association of Treatment of Sexual Abusers

American Psychological Association

Kentucky Psychological Association