SECTION 5 – PROGRAM/PROJECT NARRATIVE

A: Describe the program/project start and end dates, a description of the program/project and applicable data with regards to specific client population the program will address (attach related flyers, planning minutes, designs, event permits, proposals for services/goods, etc.):

Tiger Strike Martial Arts Academy has two primary goals:

1. To provide quality out of school time activities in a safe and supportive environment for children and youth 4 -18 years of age residing in disadvantage neighborhoods of Louisville, Kentucky. Current students reside in 40210, 40211, 40212 and 40216 zip codes.
2. To provide adults a safe and supportive place to express themselves physically and emotionally and the opportunity to give back to their community by serving as adult role models.

Program goals are accomplished through our innovation activities:

1. Physical and self defense activities for children, youth and adults: Our students are first taught to love themselves and their neighbors, to be leaders in their community, to avoid negative situations that may lead to confrontation, conflict resolution skills and how to defend themselves when it is absolutely necessary. They participate in physical exercise activities (running, situps, push ups, etc.) as part of the Wing Chun Martial arts training. Participants are trained by certified Black Belts, with over 25 years of experience, to defend themselves against bodily injury from any possible attackers. Classes are held 3 evenings a week from 5pm to 8pm and on Saturdays from 9am to 12pm. Students participate in tournaments locally and out of town.
2. Emotional support - mentoring, community and recreational activities: Adult role models are available at every session to provide emotional support and to mentor youth. Role models participate in quarterly recreation activities.

B: Describe specifically how the funding will be spent including identification of funding to sub grantee(s):

LOUISVILLE METRO COUNCIL NEIGHBORHOOD DEVELOPMENT FUND APPLICATION

C: If this request is a fundraiser, please detail how the proceeds will be spent: NA

D: For Expenditure Reimbursement Only – The grant award period begins with the Metro Council approval date and ends on June 30 of Metro fiscal year in which the grant is approved. If any part of this funding request is for funds to be spent before the grant award period, identify the applicable circumstances:

- ☐ The funding request is a reimbursement of the following expenditures that will probably be incurred after the application date, but prior to the execution of the grant agreement:
- ✓ If selecting this option, the invoice, receipt and payment documentation should not be available as of the date of this application.

The Grantee will be required to submit financial reporting in accordance with the reporting schedule provided in the grant agreement.

- ☐ Reimbursements should not be made before application date unless an emergency can be demonstrated by the primary council sponsor. The funding request is a reimbursement of the following expenditures (attach invoices or proof of payment):
- ✓ Attach a copy of invoices and/or receipts to provide proof of purchase of activities associated with the work plan identified in this application.
 - ✓ Attach a copy of cancelled checks to provide proof of payment of the invoices or receipts associated with the work plan identified in this application.

LOUISVILLE METRO COUNCIL NEIGHBORHOOD DEVELOPMENT FUND APPLICATION

E: Describe the program's benefits to those being served (measurable outcomes). Include the program's process for collecting data and the indicators that will be tracked to measure the benefits to those being served:

Benefits to program participants (Outcomes)

1. Participants are able to express themselves in a healthy manner.
2. Participants are able to resolve everyday conflict with peacemaking responses.
3. Participants are able to defend themselves from attackers.

Indicators

1. Participants use conflict resolution skills
2. Reduction in school suspension rate
3. Participants increase their skill level in Martial Arts.

Data Collection

1. Student report using conflict resolution skills and are observed by staff and parents.
2. Cascade reports and Report Cards
3. Participants advance in the Martial Arts System - earn the different levels of belts

F: Briefly describe any existing collaborative relationships the organization has with other community organizations. Describe what those partners are bringing to the relationship in general and to this program/project specifically.

Salt and Light CDC collaborates with (3) other community organizations

Salt and Light CDC is the fiscal agent for Tiger Strike Martial Arts Academy. Salt and Lights provides financial oversight, organizational coaching, and assist Tiger Strike with mentoring and leadership development activities. Tiger Strikes staff is primarily responsible for implementation of all program components and activities.

Mt. Hermon Missionary Baptist Church provides monetary contributions, van transportation, board members, mentors and helps us recruit participants for all of our programs. They also assist with fund raising efforts and provide office and program space for Salt and Light CDC.

Magic Hands Kung Fu Academy provides assistance in recruiting mentors and participants for the More Than Conqueror Youth Development Program and the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program. They also assist with community activities and fund raising efforts.

The Corporation shall not make any taxable expenditure as defined in Section 4945(d), Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding provision of any future federal law.

INDEMNIFICATION

The Corporation shall indemnify a current or former director or officer [and his or her heirs, executors and administrators] for expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the director or officer in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding, civil or criminal, in which he or she is made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer: provided, that no director or officer shall be indemnified for expenses incurred, if he or she shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for willful misconduct or wanton and reckless disregard for human rights, safety or property in the performance of such officer (and his or her heirs, executors and administrators) to be used in payment of expenses arising in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding, civil or criminal, in which the director or officer of the Corporation is made a party by reason of being or having been director or officer, provided that the person receiving the advance agree in writing prior to receipt of such advance to reimburse the Corporation for all amounts advanced if the person is adjudged liable for willful misconduct or performance of his or her duty of the Corporation. In addition, the Corporation may provide indemnification to a current or former director or officer in other circumstances to the extent authorized by the bylaws of the Corporation or a resolution of the Board of Directors, or as provided for in an agreement between the director or officer and the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX: DISSOLUTION

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for payment of all liabilities of the Corporation, including the costs and expenses of such dissolution, distribute all the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
